Taking full advantage of the 10-inch snow last week was this group of sleighers. They are Bill Hardaway, at rear of sleigh, Mrs. John Hardaway, seated left, Mrs. Johnnie McBroom, seated right, and Ann Hardaway, leading the pony. Hardaway had the sleigh shipped to Canyon from New Hampshire. The only one who didn't seem to enjoy the sleigh ride was the pony.

80 Additional Homes Receive Door-to-Door Mail Delivery

Developments In Postal Service Told

Postmaster Marion Higdon announced several recent developments in the postal service for Canyon. These developments include:

1. An extension of door-to-door mail service;
  2. The addition of six new pickup boxes, some especially for late collection;
  3. Postal receipts for 1959.
- Residents living in an approximate 28-block area now have city mail delivery, which previously had not been available to them.

80 Homes Affected

Some 80 homes are affected by the change, the postmaster said. Door-to-door delivery began at these homes last Saturday.

Areas affected include a section north of the railroad, four blocks on Fourth and Fifth Avenues and 5th and 6th Streets, a section on Seventh and Eighth Avenues between 5th and 8th Streets, and the Foster-Vaughan Addition on Twelfth and Thirteenth Avenues.

Residents in these areas had been receiving their mail in a rural-type box, had been picking it up at the post office, or had had delivery at West Texas Station, Higdon said.

Six Mail Boxes Added

Six new mail pickup boxes have been placed throughout the city. Four of these new boxes are in

Father, Son Get Top Award At Boy Scout Court of Honor

The highest award attainable in scouting was conveyed on Dr. James P. Cornette and his son, Bill, Tuesday night climaxing a Boy Scout Court of Honor program at the First Methodist Church.

Dr. Cornette and Bill were awarded the rank of Eagle Scout in special ceremonies closing the court in which 43 other awards were presented to scouts of Troops 66 and 31.

The two Eagle badges were presented by Curtis Neal of Amarillo, representing the district council.

Mrs. Cornette Pins

Mrs. Cornette pinned the awards on her husband and son following the presentation.

Dr. Cornette, who nearly completed work for his Eagle rank in 1925, recently had agreed with his son that he would complete requirements for the award when Bill completed his tests.

Dr. Cornette followed the requirements of 35 years ago for his award, however.

Lacked Three Badges

Scoutmaster for Dr. Cornette in 1924 and 1925 in Russellville, Ky., was the late Ernest N. Hart, one of Baden-Powell's original scouts in the suburbs of London. Dr. Cornette lacked parts of three merit badges when Hart returned to England in 1925 because of the illness of his mother.

Presiding at the ceremonies was Lawrence Brotherton, advancement chairman for Troop 66. He presented Tenderfoot awards.

Bill Davis and Dr. Dudley Moore presented second and first class awards, and Aubrey Crossland awarded Star Awards. A Life award was given by O. W. Parker, Jr.

Other Scout Awards

Receiving Tenderfoot awards were Ray Beights, Don Gough, Steve Downing, Bill Hotchkiss, Joe Johnson, Wayne Johnson, Mark

Lair, Gary McAtee, Mike McBroom, Mark Olson, Larry Pitt, Clifford Sherrod, Steve Sims, Tommy Thomson, and Darrell Woolsey.

First class awards went to Sam Brillhart, John Brandon, John Brantley, Tommy Hildreth, Stephen Hines, Jim Callarman, and Curtis Mobley.

Star awards were given to Sam Brillhart, Steve Burgess, Kenny Crossland, Archie Freeman, Harry Lisle, Billy Walker, and Randy Warren. Larry Holman was given his Life award.

County Group Maps Plans For Junior Livestock Show

New officers, directors and committee chairmen, as well as the opening of another category for judging, were announced this week for the Randall County Junior Livestock Association's annual show.

The show, in which members of Randall County 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America groups exhibit the animals raised by them during the past year, will be held January 22 and 23 in the city barn, Third Avenue at 16th Street.

The show is financed by members of the association, and J. O. Parker, chairman of the finance and membership committee, said anyone who wishes to join the association should contact a member of his committee.

New Association Officers

New officers of the livestock group are Duane Howard, president; R. B. Gist, Jr., vice president; Bruce Winn, secretary, and E. M. Myers, general superintendent of the livestock show.

Chairman of the executive committee is J. L. Fletcher, immediate past president of the organization.

New directors, who were elected for three-year terms, are Jack Campbell, Eugene Bonds, James Bible, Ray Metcalf, Clarence Beckman, Vincent Friemel, Dale Whitlow, and A. W. Lair.

Committee Chairmen

Chairing the various committees are Parker, finance and membership; T. A. Black, sales; Forrest Gruner, arrangements and grounds, and Richmond Hales, head of the auctioneering group.

Albert Craig is superintendent of the beef cattle division, Vincent Friemel is superintendent of the swine department, Ed Wieck is heading the sheep department, and Jim Fletcher has charge of the horse department, a new division for this year's show.

The horse division was added because it was felt that many members of 4-H clubs and FFA units had horses they wished to display, John Brazzil, county agent, said.

Five Horse Categories

The new division is open to any boy or girl that is the owner of a pony. No more than two horses may be shown by any boy or girl, however, and no horses will be sold at the show.

A horse may be shown in one of five classes: filly, if under two-years-old; mare, if over two-years-old; stallion, under two-years-old; stallion, over two-years-old, and gelding, for all ages.

To Name Grand Champions Grand champions for male and female entries will be chosen by the judges.

Due to the limited space and lack of enough stalls at the city barn, horses may not be taken to the show site until the morning of January 23, Brazzil said.

Other animals, however, must be

Officers Chosen By Local Scouts

Canyon Explorer Post 66 elected a new slate of officers Monday night and inducted a new member, Steve Hill.

It also was announced that the post had won a $250 award in the "Operation Oil" competition.

The new officers of the post are Ronny Harris, president; Lawrence Lewis, vice president; Clark de Schweinitz, secretary; Eugene Blasdel, treasurer; Joe Whittington, quartermaster, and Phil Pennington and Russell Cook, cabinet representatives.

Post 66 placed ninth among 65 scout groups which entered the Sears, Roebuck Foundation-sponsored competition to win the $250 cash prize.

County Workers Get Pay Raises

Almost all Randall County employees have received pay raises for 1960 from county commissioners after a two-day session by the governing board.

Only elected officials were not granted a hike in pay, but commissioners said they would consider raises for this group at next Monday's meeting.

Salaries of most employees were granted increases of from $25 to $50 a month by the commissioners. Each office of the county was considered separately instead of a blanket raise given all employees.

Community Concert To Feature Nikolaidi

One of the world's outstanding contraltos will be presented in concert here Saturday at the West Texas State College auditorium for members of the Canyon Community Concert Association.

Elena Nikolaidi, leading contralto for the Metropolitan Opera Association, will sing in the second of a series of concerts being presented this season by the local concert association.

The flashy brunette, one of five children, was born in a small town near Athens, Greece, and inherited her musical gifts from her father, a professor of Byzantine music.

Soloed at Age Seven

When just seven, she was a soloist with her church choir. At 15, she received a six-year scholarship to an Athens conservatory of music. During her final year at the conservatory, the young contralto made her professional debut with the State Orchestra, Dimitri Mitropoulos conducting.

Her initial American appearance in 1949 at New York's Town Hall, was "one of the smash hits of the season" according to Time Magazine. This impressive debut was followed by a record-breaking concert tour which included 76 orchestral and recital engagements across the country.

Since that time, Nikolaidi has been hailed as one of the finest contraltos of our time. A recent New York recital prompted chief critic Howard Taubman of the New York Times to write: "Nikolaidi's opalescent mezzo is one of the loveliest the world knows, a sumptuous contralto, and a cream and ebony beauty to boot."

Won European Laurels

Before coming to America, Nikolaidi was, for years, a leading member of the Vienna Opera, where her beautiful voice and dynamic interpretations won laurels in all the foremost opera houses of Europe, and also in Alexandria and Cairo.

On her way to America, she paused in London long enough to give a recital in Wigmore Hall. It was so successful that she was offered a contract with the Covent Garden Opera. But Nikolaidi had already decided to try her fortunes in this country.

Honored by Greek King

Nikolaidi has made many transcriptions for the Voice of America for broadcasting to her homeland. For this work, the king of Greece has awarded her the Golden Phoenix Cross and a citation "for cementing close cultural ties between the United States and Greece and for outstanding contributions in the fields of music and art."

Admission to the concert here will be by membership in the Canyon Community Concert Association. Since each member may have the membership card punched four times, a holder may bring a guest if a previous concert has been missed.

Blast Victim's Condition 'Good'

A 21-year-old Canyon man remains in Neblett Hospital following an explosion which ripped his apartment about 4:15 p. m. Monday.

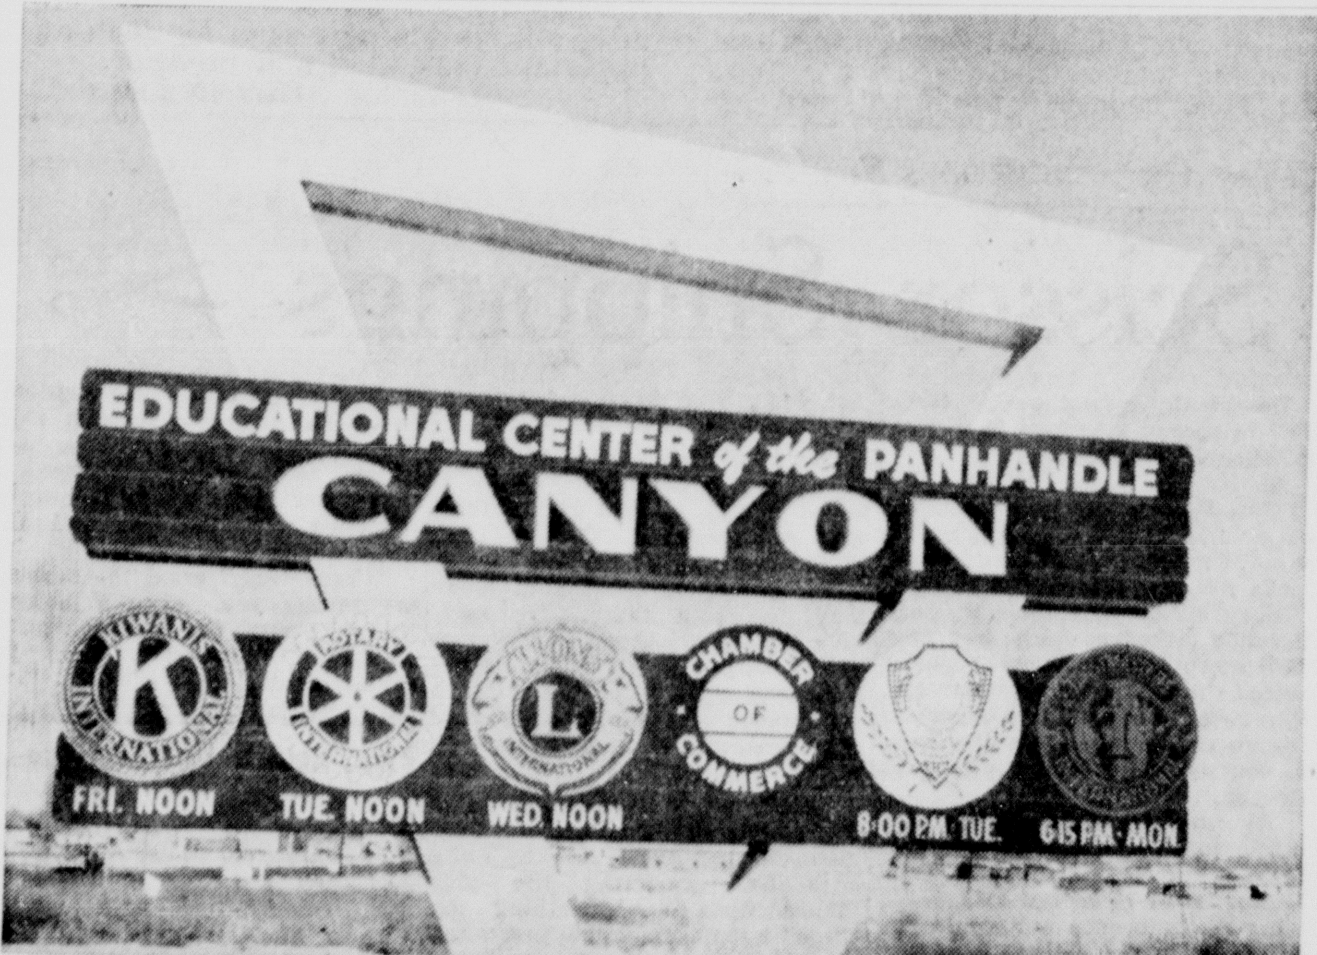

Hospital attendants termed the condition of Daryl Keith late yesterday as "good." Keith received second and third degree burns on his hands and face in the explosion in his apartment at 1808 Fifth Avenue.

Jack Jennings, fire marshal, said the blast apparently came as Keith was attempting to light a hot water heater in the bathroom. Gas had accumulated in the attic, and exploded from a spark.

Except for a plastic shade and curtain in the bathroom, there was no fire except the one that burned Keith. Clothes hanging on a line in the bathroom were blown into the attic, and a partition two rooms away was moved about eight or 10 inches. Windows in the bathroom, kitchen and a bedroom were blown out.

The apartment belonged to Mrs. A. R. Glenn.

Keith's wife works at Thompson's of Canyon, Inc. The couple's two children, one 16-months-old and one three-years-old, were at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Ellis, 2002 Second Avenue, at the time of the blast.

Signs were erected north, west, and south of the city last week, proclaiming Canyon as the "Educational Center of the Panhandle." The signs were sponsored by local civic organizations, including the Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Toastmasters Club.

Grasping at Straws

The current fuss between the press of Texas and New York, growing out of the New Year's Day bowl game between the University of Texas and Syracuse University, has spilled over into politics.

An official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People took one disputed incident from the Cotton Bowl game between the universities and based a case against Texas' presidential prospect, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

The much-debated incident is the case of whether or not a Texas football player spat in the face of a Negro player for Syracuse. Texas players have denied the incident.

Roy Wilkins of the NAACP lodged a charge against Senator Johnson and spoke harshly against "racism" in Texas after reading reports in New York newspapers on the matter.

Wilkins said Negroes across the country would refuse to support Senator Johnson because of the alleged incident.

"It could be," the Negro leader said,

(OG)

"that the Texas football player who spat in the face of a Syracuse player would have an impact on Senator Johnson's chances.

"Our people judge these things in a very personal manner," he said.

Wilkins failed to tell his listeners at a NAACP meeting that a Syracuse player has been accused by Texas players of calling Rene Ramirez a "dirty Mexican."

Even if both charges are true, it would appear to us that "racism" and prejudice is just as bad (some say it's even worse) in New York as it is in Texas.

But the significant point is not whether the charges are true, but that a powerful organization like the NAACP is already grasping at straws in an effort to discredit Senator Johnson.

What Wilkins and the NAACP did not take into consideration is that the Senator's influence in Texas does not extend to the point where he can dictate social customs, no matter how inhuman those social customs might be.

Not A Robin Hood

In his State of the Union message, which necessarily covered a variety of subjects which will be taken up in more detail in later messages to Congress, President Eisenhower showed a continuing concern for inflation. We must fight inflation, he said, as we would a fire that imperils our home. He labeled it the destroyer of salaries, savings, pensions, and insurance, and as a force "gnawing away the very roots of a free, healthy economy and the nation's security."

His description of inflation was not quite so colorful as last year's, which described it as "not a Robin Hood taking from the rich to give to the poor" but rather as a robber dealing most cruelly with those least able to protect themselves. Nonetheless, he brought into the picture a new element whose effect has come to be felt most heavily in the last year and which will increase in effect if inflation is not curbed. That is the threat to jobs and living standards resulting from inflationary price rises which price American products out of world markets. Also it is a factor in the situation that has caused a disturbing loss in the gold supply upon which the value of the American dollar rests.

Though saying it is the obligation of every citizen to join the fight against inflation, the President recognized that the government has a major role to play in the battle. That role is to curb excessive spending, make the government live within its income, and start on reduction of the huge federal debt.

More encouraging even than his declaration of intent in this respect was the preview given by the President of the budget not only balanced but promising a $4.2 billion debt-reducing surplus. Such a reduction in debt would indeed relieve the pressures for inflation, particularly if it could be interpreted as signifying determination to bring the debt within manageable limits and put the government's fiscal affairs in order.

Even so, the heartening prospect is tempered by doubt. For one thing, budget-making is not alone a presidential matter. Congress has a hand in it, and in Congress there are few budget defenders, especially in an election year when spending temptations are strong. Too, the $79.8 budget figure mentioned by the President is a billion dollars or more higher than this year on the spending side, an indication of the continued upward trend in government expenditures, and the surplus forecast is based on the expectation that rising incomes and rising profits will bring in enough revenue to more than offset higher spending. Again, these revenue estimates include acceptance by Congress of new revenue-raising measures it has shown no disposition to accept.

More revenue from these sources could come as much as a result of further price inflation as of economic vigor and growth. The battle against inflation that is as dangerous as a fire in the home will not be won by mere words or by accident, any more than a fire in the home will be put out by simply sounding the alarm. The battle will be won, as the President said, only by stern self-discipline on the part of every citizen, and for sterner self-discipline on the part of government than many election-conscious politicians have shown themselves willing to impose.

(Fort Worth Star-Telegram)

No Excuse Wanted

There is some talk of eliminating the poll tax requirements in Texas but, come what may, those who vote in 1960 will be required to have the little white slips.

As usual, poll tax payments are lagging at this particular period. In January, however, they usually pick up—and that time is fast approaching. Most people well know the importance of casting their vote for, upon this function, depends our entire governmental existence.

Even for America, this particular area provides more freedom in voting than many others. No organized cliques, no party bosses, and no wards exist to dictate who will be elected. People just go down and vote to the best of their ability.

The only real requirement is that of paying one's poll tax—and compared to other nations this is small indeed. A few people may not have the money but most of those who default will do so through neglect or carelessness which, after all, provide no excuse for such an important obligation and privilege.

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

George Dolan in the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram: One last look-over-the-shoulder at football:

At that pre-season football rally in Fort Worth, a fellow whose vocal volume was as excessive as his fund of misinformation drew dirty looks from neighboring fans.

He was all wrong about Bear Bryant's record at A&M, had past TCU scores all mixed up and even voiced the theory that it was Norm Van Brocklin who put Auburn on the football map. Van Brocklin, as everyone else knows, played at Oregon.

What he said that drew the loudest jeers, though, was that he had inside dope to the effect that the University of Texas not only would win the conference but would finish No. 1 in the nation.

Now the guy doesn't look so dumb. He missed by only 10 points.

Cecil Waggoner in the Claude News: Thought UFO's were about a thing of the past but not so. We just don't hear much about them anymore.

The other day I was talking to an old boy who handles quite a bit of radar. I asked him if they ever run into UFO (Unidentified Flying Objects). He replied, "Quite often." I then asked him what they do about them. He said, "We just ignore them. Forget we even saw them." He said they are well over 15,000 feet and travel at fantastic speeds. He didn't hazard a guess as to what they might be.

Then Sunday evening on TV I saw a non-fiction movie on UFO made around 1954. It was quite authentic, projecting the idea "there was too, something out there" but no one knew just what.

So perhaps 1960 will be another year for mass invasions of the UFO's. Don't get a crick in your neck.

"Thank God," cried the missionary to the lion. "For a moment there I feared for my life . . ."

"Quiet," muttered the lion, "I'm saying grace."

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

Negro Shine Boy Thought Crump Rich, But for the 'Little Man'

By BOYCE HOUSE

To a tourist, but probably not to a Knoxville Chamber of Commerce, the most picturesque downtown section of that Tennessee city is the public market area. An ancient building stands at the head of a street and the traffic divides to flow to each side of the Public Building in single file, for the rest of the street is taken up with a row of small trucks backed up to the sidewalk. The proprietors display mounds of tomatoes — red and yellow; apples, red and yellow; sweet potatoes, squashes, carrots and peppers, red and green. Each individual product has been scrubbed and positively glistens.

The block of dilapidated buildings is occupied by a barber shop, souvenir shop, clothing store, a grocery store, and other enterprises. In a stairway entrance a Negro has set up a "shine parlor" and, as a customer, I learned from a remark that he made to a visitor that business had been rushing; it wasn't quite noon and he had already given 14 shines.

He needed an assistant but the one he called on in such rush periods was not available as he was in the work-house.

"Do they work in the work-house?" He repeated my question. I gathered that if a man said he was sick, he didn't and that there was a great deal of sickness. Inmates enjoyed the workhouse so much that when, because of crowded conditions, the authorities wanted to release an inmate three days before his term was up, he stood on his rights and refused to go.

"How long have you lived in Knoxville?" I asked. (There was lots of time for conversation in the course of the leisurely shine.)

"Fifty-two years," was his reply. "I didn't mean to learn your age; you should have just said, 'All my life'."

He chuckled and he answered, "But that wouldn't be correct; I'm still living."

Discovering that I had once lived in Memphis, he declared, "There used to be a great man in Memphis."

"Mr. Crump?"

"Yes, he was a rich man but he was for the little man."

Knoxville's public market reminds one somewhat of New Orleans French Quarter.

HOMEOWNER TAX FACTS

Long-Term Capital Gain Tax Due If Residence Is Sold for Profit

(This is the second in a series of articles on federal income tax filing. These articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

In today's economy, with constantly rising prices and land values, it is quite common for the family man to look upon his home as an investment.

Not that he entertains the idea of selling it necessarily, but at least he knows that it will probably climb in value, and that he could then sell it if he wanted to.

However, as an investment, the ownership of a home differs in many respects from the ownership of stocks or bonds, and these differences have important tax implications that you should be aware of.

Changing Your Residence

If you sell your house (which is your principal residence) at a profit and move to a new home, you may not have to pay tax on the profit.

Let's say you bought a house five years ago for $15,000, which you sold last year for $20,000. Since you held the house for more than six months, the profit of $5,000 is taxable as a long-term capital gain at a maximum rate of 25 percent.

However, if you move into a new house either one year before or one year after the sale, and if the new house costs $20,000 or more, then you pay no tax on the $5,000 profit.

Date Construction Starts

If you are having the new house built for yourself and construction begins either one year before or one year after the sale of the old house, then the period of replacement is extended to 18 months from date of sale, providing you occupy it within that period.

The important point here is that the new house must cost as much or more than the amount you receive for the old house. If it cost only $19,000, you must pay the long-term capital gains tax on the balance of $1,000.

You could actually sell your house at a profit and buy a new one every few years without paying a tax on the profit, but you aren't really avoiding the tax, you are merely postponing it. The cumulative gain will be taxed when the last house is finally sold.

without being replaced.

Home-Owner Expenses

A home owner is usually in a more advantageous tax position than a person who rents. This is because home owners who elect to itemize their deductions rather than use the standard 10 percent deduction are allowed to deduct interest and property taxes paid during the year.

They also can deduct the loss on damage to their house and grounds resulting from a hail storm or other casualty. Taxpayers who rent their homes from others undoubtedly are paying for these costs by rent, but they cannot claim any tax deduction.

Improvements and Repairs

Repairs to your home are considered personal expenses.

They are not deductible, and for tax purposes, do not increase the cost of your house. Although repairs and maintenance costs are not deductible, they can be used to reduce the amount which must be spent on a new house in order to postpone payment of tax on the gain.

However, they only apply to such costs if they are incurred within 90 days before contracting to sell the house, or paid within 30 days after.

Improvements Not Deductible

Improvements to your house are not deductible either, but they do increase the cost of your house.

This is an important point to remember when planning to sell your house. To determine the amount you will gain from the sale, add the cost of improvements you have made to the original cost of the house and subtract the total from the selling price.

If you bought it for $15,000, added $2,000 worth of improvements, and sold it for $20,000, your net gain would be $3,000.

When you invest in a home, it is almost like investing in a business. To be able to take advantage of the legitimate tax considerations you are entitled to, you will need to keep accurate records of your various expenses.

So don't forget to save your paid bills from year to year.

GREED

People who aren't happy with what they have, will never be happy no matter what they get.

Men who refuse to bet on the races show a lot of horse sense.

January is the month to test our tolerance.

During the happy confusion of the holidays, we make ourselves promises:

Never again, we say, will we be scornful of the young mother who answers an invitation to a party with, "Well-I-I, I'll see if I can get a babysitter." This particular impoliteness has always irked us. But with a baby fretting in one's arms and a three-year-old tugging at one's skirts, the front doorbell ringing, and the black-eyed peas boiling over, it's hard to remember one's manners when the voice on the telephone says: "Bring your grownup guests and come to lunch tomorrow." It's like a voice from outer space. Little wonder that harried young mothers, who live with this turmoil the year around, answer in a tone that implies, "This too? I don't believe I can stand it!"

Nor will we ever, ever again be sensitive with a relative. Conversation made in the familiar vein of homefolks' understanding, may seem to carry a meaning that was never intended. It's easy to judge—and misjudge.

Never again, we add, will we stack the guest-room closets and drawers with a packrat variety of this-and-that, which should have been given to the junkman 15 years earlier. In clearing for the guests, we clutter our own living area, and make the whole place seem like a forgotten warehouse.

Or so we said in the heartwarming chaos of close living with loved ones. But only after the last pine needle is swept up, the last red ball stashed away, and the last in-law waved out of sight can we really take stock of the lessons we think we learned. Will the quiet, normal months ahead help us remember or forget?

K. L. Pond Named Officer For Real Estate Chapter

K. L. Pond of Canyon was installed as regional vice president, Farm Brokers, Texas Chapter 22 of the Texas Real Estate Association, Inc., in ceremonies recently at the Hotel Texas in Fort Worth.

A capacity crowd witnessed the service last week during the state association's installation luncheon session, part of a three-day program for Texas realtors and their associates.

The man who is afraid to risk failure can never attain success.

Ava Jean Hignett, James N. Jackson Exchange Vows in Service at Claude

In a double ring ceremony in the First Methodist Church of Claude, Miss Ava Jean Hignett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hignett, became the bride of James N. Jackson, of Tulia, son of the late Mrs. Ruth Tedford of Tulia.

Officiating at the December 27 ceremony were the Rev. Aubrey White of Amarillo and the Rev. Cecil Hardaway of Claude.

Miss Janice Winkcompleck of Claude, organist, presented traditional wedding music. She accompanied Frank Frisbie and Tom Frisbie of Amarillo, who sang "Because" by Guy d'Hardelot and "All the Things You Are" before the ceremony. "The Lord's Prayer" by A. H. Malotte was sung at the conclusion of the service.

An arc of candles and palms behind the altar were flanked by bouquets of white mums and stock. White satin bows decorated the pews of the family.

Gold Satin Dresses

Louise and Linda Stephenson of Claude were candlelighters. They were attired in identical dresses of gold satin and headresses of gold satin and net. Each carried a white candle surrounded by bronze pom-pom mums.

Miss Nancy Hood of Claude acted as bridesmaid, and Miss Carole Anne Hignett, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. The attendants wore identical dresses of gold satin and net. They carried cascading bouquets of bronze pom-pom mums.

Tom Paris of Tahoka was best man, and Don Paris of Tahoka was groomsmen. Ushers were Holland Westbrook of Claude, Bill McGowan of Borger, Earl Gillham of Claude, and Edward Hinders of Happy.

Given By Father

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza. The double flounce skirt fell into a chapel train. The fitted bodice, styled with a scooped neckline and short sleeves, was covered with Alencon lace and accented with seed pearls and sequins. Her veil fell from a crown of sequins and seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of gardenias atop a New Testament covered with mother of pearl, belonging to her aunt, Mrs. S. F. Hignett. She wore a string of pearls belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. R. L. May, of Tulia.

The bride's mother wore blue lace over satin and black and matching blue accessories, while the bridegroom's grandmother wore black crepe and black accessories.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church.

Miss Paula Obrecht of Claude and Miss Lua Bea Waddell of Plainview served at the reception. Miss La Velda Rose of Tulia furnished music. Mrs. Pat Vandiver of Amarillo registered the guests.

For the brief wedding trip, the bride traveled in a forest green wool suit with black and matching accessories and pearl and rhinestone jewelry, a gift of the groom.

At Home in Canyon
The couple are at home at 605 17th Street in Canyon. The bride, a graduate of Claude High School, is a sophomore math major at West Texas State College, where she is a member of the Buffalo Gals, campus service organization. She

Washington Report

Great Debate Continues

By Representative Walter Rogers
18th Congressional District

That is, the great debate on the taxation of income. But, it now looks as though something new has been added.

It was shortly after the adoption of the income tax theory of taxation in this country that the communistic type of government had its inception in Russia. The October revolution and the many tragic events which followed through the years along the lines advocated by Karl Marx and Lenin rightfully caused great alarm throughout the world.

The Marx doctrine underwrote the taxing of the income of the individuals and corporate entities. This was promptly pounced upon by the vigorous opponents of the income taxation theory as definite proof that this theory of taxation was unquestionably communistic. This argument has been used in many debates on the subject, although it had had little effect on bringing about the abolition of the income tax or even in preventing an increase of the same.

A Fair Tax

The advocates of the income tax have always figured that it was a fair tax, if properly graduated, and was not communistic in nature regardless of what Karl Marx might say. We are now faced with new developments and new pronouncements that will undoubtedly leave both the pro and the con camps in this country in a quandary, as well as the followers of Karl Marx on the one hand and the modern-day communists on the other.

Mr. Khrushchev is alleged to have announced that new studies are being made of the income tax with the view of completely abolishing it in Russia. This pronouncement, insofar as the issue of income taxes being communistic or anti-communistic, puts everybody on the spot.

If Mr. Khrushchev abolishes the income tax it will destroy the argument of the anti-income tax group in this country, because the income tax advocates can then say that the action of Mr. Khrushchev has definitely overruled and vetoed the words of Mr. Marx and thereby branded income tax as anti-communistic, which everyone in this country is.

Mr. K. A. Capitalist?

The income tax advocates will be put on the spot, because the anti-income tax people will argue that the taxing of income is so reprehensible that even the communists are refusing to do it.

It could also put Mr. Khrushchev on the spot because the followers of Karl Marx could stand pat on the income tax doctrine laid down by Marx, and claim that Mr. Khrushchev, by his action, was denouncing communism and underwriting capitalism.

It could also put the Karl Marx boys on the spot because, if Khrushchev's pronouncements are to constitute the communistic constitution, regardless of how capitalistic they might be, it would probably be more appropriate for the Karl Marx boys to be worrying about their heads rather than their pocketbooks.

Worrying About Capital

In any event, you can see how confused things can get when people start paying too much attention to what one man says. If Mr. Khrushchev wants to do away with income taxes in Russia, that is his business. However, I suspect that there are more Russians worrying about income than there are worrying about the income tax.

I sincerely hope that 1960 will provide enlightenment to those who seem to think that more government spending will produce more government income at less cost to the taxpayer. This is about as possible as riding one horse in four directions at the same time. Substitution of the type of tax will not provide tax relief to the taxpayer until government spending has been reduced in the amount of the relief intended to be afforded to the taxpayer.

The Canyon High School entries are Marion Henson, first soprano; Judy Wheeler, second soprano; Sue Fain, first alto; Nedra Fanning, second alto; Bonnie Jo Whittington, first tenor; Jim Glenn, second tenor; John Wear, first bass; and Jimmy Killingsworth, second bass.

The groups from all the participating schools will rehearse Saturday and the performance will be given that evening. The public is invited to attend the performance.

Yearbook Staff Works Overtime

The "Soaring Wings" annual staff is working overtime to meet deadline in order to get the yearbook material to the publisher on time.

By the first of December the annual staff had completed one-fourth of the yearbook. They have two more deadlines to meet, January 15, when one half of the book will be completed, and March 5, when all material must be completed and at the publisher's.

Two hundred more pictures have to be made before the last deadline, January 8 junior and senior class officers, Student-Faculty Congress members and the cheerleaders had their pictures taken.

If the staff meets all its deadlines, the annual should be given to students early in May.

John, Jerry 'Great Help'

Patter

The Canyon High School Choir, under the direction of Mr. Gene Murray, recorded "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem" with Carol Jones soloist. The recording was played on Christmas Day over KGNC radio at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

The senior play cast enjoyed a social in the home of Howard Mundy Thursday night after the first performance of "The Night of January 16." The entire senior class joined the cast Friday night in the High School Cafeteria for a party.

The students at CHS enjoyed the Christmas tree which was placed by the Student Council on the second floor. Marla Free and her helpers, Carolyn Cooke, John Wear, Tom White, Bill Cornette, and Jerry Richardson, decorated the tree.

Marla had this to say about her helpers, "John Wear hung lower ornaments and sang 'Don't Sit Under the Christmas Tree With Anyone Else But Me' and Jerry Richardson hung two icicles. This was a great help."

Have you ever wondered what our teachers do during holidays? Mrs. Lee and her family visited Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm in California over the Christmas vacation. Visits to Mr. Lee's parents' and sister's homes were good reasons for such a lovely trip.

Mrs. Knott played Grandma. To whom? Of course, her grandchildren, Susan, Tommy and Carolyn.

Mrs. Sanders was hostess to her own family at Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Knighton and their three children and Dick from Dallas enjoyed their visit home.

Mrs. Gibson enjoyed the company of her sister and family from South Dakota and her brother and his wife from Austin.

A repeat performance of "The Night of January 16" is coming up soon. CHS can be proud of the cast for its help in the March of Dimes campaign. If you haven't seen the play, do so and help the March of Dimes as well.

When you lose your head, then hold your tongue.

Good Breakfast Helps Health

The word "breakfast" means exactly what it says. We break our fast. For twelve hours, more or less, we have eaten nothing. In fact, for at least eight hours of that time we have been asleep, or should have been. To start our bodies out for the day with no breakfast is like trying to ride a bus without a ticket. We are depriving our bodies of the much needed food that it requires to remain healthy.

Food performs three functions in the human body. The first function is to supply heat and energy. The second is to build and repair body tissues. The third is to keep the body functioning normally. Breakfast supplies only a small portion of these functions.

We hear people, especially teenagers, say, "Breakfast makes me sick." This could very possibly be true; but if the person will attempt to eat something each morning, he will soon find that breakfast no longer makes him sick. Skipping breakfast tends to make a person feel tired and draggy during the midmorning hours. He has no pep, no energy, and he is not as bright mentally as he would be had he eaten breakfast.

Eating breakfast starts the day out right. It gives one a warm glow that he possesses all day. When a person eats breakfast, he feels full of energy and ambition. He is mentally alert and eager to learn new things.

If a person entered a high school for the first time, he could pick out the students who eat good breakfasts regularly. They are happy, have shining hair, sparkling eyes, and are the picture of perfect health. They are the students who enter into more activities and the students who participate in sports.

Aren't you glad you eat breakfast? If you do not, don't you wish you did?

MOODS

By CAROLYN MILHOAN

Moods are a blessing and a failure with me. I never know whether I will be laughing or crying the next moment.

Many times I begin the day full of vigor and ready to enjoy myself. Then suddenly one word, one move or one look at something makes me forlorn.

Maybe half an hour later while I am talking to a friend, I am alive again. From that stage I may advance into a more jovial mood. When it goes, it may leave me lonesome, serious, not caring or disgusted. I may get too serious, for many people believe I am angry. I am not.

I never try to show my feelings when I am around others because I don't want them to feel ill at ease or unhappy. Therefore I must always see two sides of everything to ward off unwanted moods and to stay happy.

'Frosh' Celebrate With Yule Party

The freshman Christmas party was held December 18 from 7:30 until 10 p. m. in the cafeteria.

Lynne Larson's decoration committee chose colors of green and red, with large bells and colored streamers carrying out the Christmas theme.

Judy Bourland, Jeanne Brazil, Judy Wilson, Frances Kiker, and Joy Harter sang two songs, accompanied by Lynne Larson. Two Christmas stories and a solo by Bill Knighton were the other entertainment.

Approximately 50 students attended the party. Each brought a toy as a Christmas gift, and all toys were donated to a charitable organization. Frances Kiker was in charge of the games and carol singing.

Refreshments of chocolate, sandwiches and cookies were served during the evening.

Mrs. Bettye Knighton and Mr. Bill West, sponsors, and class parents attended the party and helped with refreshments and decorations. Class parents attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Bourland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Oberst, Mrs. Ferne Kiker, and Mrs. Eunice Haggard.

Students Enjoy Extra Holidays

The cause of an unexpected addition to the New Year's holidays given to CHS students and teachers last Tuesday and Wednesday was 10 inches of snow.

Because of the snow there were many cancellations of activities. There may have been joy during these two days, but this will cease when we have to make up those unexpected holidays that materialized because of the bad weather.

National Merit Scholarship Tests Will Be Given to Eligible Juniors

All 1961 graduates who wish to enter the 1960-61 National Merit Scholarship competition should register now at the school office. James E. Miller, principal, announced recently. The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given at 9 a. m. Saturday, March 19.

To be eligible for the test, Canyon High School students must be second semester juniors at the time of the examination. Students must pay a $1 fee on the day of the test. Any interested student who is unable to pay the fee should consult Mr. Miller.

The tests are given each year by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation as part of the nation's largest independent scholarship program. Last year 550,000 students competed in 14,550 schools for more than $3.5 million worth of four year scholarships.

Awards are granted on the basis of intellectual merit, but student financial needs determine the size of individual stipends, which are renewable each year without further testing.

The NMS exam, administered by Science Research Associates of Chicago, also is valuable to students for selecting their careers or planning their courses in high school and college, Mr. Miller said. After the test, each participating student will receive an interpretive folder that reports individual test results for comparison with scores of high school students across the country. Thus, Mr. Miller said, students may learn their educational strengths and weaknesses—whether or not they plan to attend college.

In addition to the NMS grants established in 1955 by the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York, about 90 industrial corporations, foundations and individuals give scholarships through NMS.

Students Receive Reports Jan. 20

The first semester ends January 15, and students will receive their report cards January 20.

The examination schedule extends from January 13 through January 15. Wednesday, tests were given for all third and sixth period classes; all second and fifth period classes are scheduled for January 14; all first and fourth period classes will have tests on January 15.

Principal J. E. Miller states that any changes in schedules will have to be made by January 15 in the principal's office. All students finished with a course should bring their books to the office to be checked in when they make a schedule change.

No changes will be made for the second semester, Mr. Miller said, except in cases of emergency or if a student needs to add or drop a course. In any case, the student must check with the principal's office.

Teachers are reminded that their grade sheets should be in the principal's office not later than Thursday, January 21.

Exchange Students To Be FHA Guests

Future Homemakers of America will hold their next meeting January 21 in the Canyon High School auditorium at 7:30 p. m.

The program will be presented by Tascosa High School's foreign exchange student, Bernd Kirsch, from Germany, is sponsored by the First Christian Church of Amarillo.

Entertainment will be presented by a quintet of freshman FHA girls. Those participating are Judy Wilson, Judy Bourland, Jeanne Brazil, Joy Harter, Frances Kiker, and Lynne Larson.

The public is invited, and the FHA organization would particularly like to invite any of the civic club members who might be interested in sponsoring an exchange student in Canyon High School.

Senior Play Is Postponed

The bad weather we had last week affected everyone, including the senior play cast. Because the snow kept them from practicing, the performance of the "Night of January 16," scheduled for January 8, was postponed until further notice by Mrs. Lee Foster, director.

Mrs. Foster said that they hope to present the play sometime next week if conflicts can be worked out.

The play is being presented to raise funds for the March of Dimes.

Future Teachers Attend Meeting Of College SEA

The D. A. Shirley FTA Club was invited to the Student Education Association meeting January 7 in the college Film Room.

The FTA students who braved the snow to attend enjoyed seeing a film, the hospitality and the companionship of the college members.

Don Gill, state SEA president, stated that Amarillo and Hereford FTA clubs could not attend because of the weather.

Band Goes Bowling

A bowling party for the Canyon High School band is being planned for Saturday, January 16, at 6 p. m. at Canyon Bowl.

Mr. Herman Demus, director of the band, and the band council plan for each member attending to bowl two lines. Refreshments will be served at the high school after the party.

SCIENCE MEETING POSTPONED

The Science Club meeting for January 7 was postponed because of the snow.

A short business meeting was held Monday at noon to decide on a date for the regular business meeting.

TRADITION CALLS FOR PARTIES

Sometime during the sixth period of school, December 22, a small "Coke and cookie" or just a "Coke" party was given in each classroom. This is a "kind of tradition" before school dismisses for the Christmas and New Year holidays.

Usually the students supply the cold drinks or punch for themselves, and the girls make the cookies.

Many Members of Staff Go Out of Town for Holidays

Many of our teachers and staff went out of town for the Christmas and New Year holidays.

Mr. J. E. Miller and his family traveled to Junction, Texas, to visit with his wife's family.

Miss Shirley Cherry, our attendance secretary, went to her home town of Olton to visit with her family and friends.

Mr. Ed Dwyer, CHS agriculture teacher, and his family visited in McLean for several days.

Miss Mary Carter, English teacher, went to Paris and to Nashville, Tenn., to visit her sisters.

Mr. Herman Demus, band director, stayed home and was host to his wife's family on Christmas day.

Mr. Ray Wells, CHS plane geometry teacher, went to Plainview and Childress to visit relatives. For the remainder of the holidays the Wells family stayed home and received visitors in their home.

Jimmy and Marla Share VIP Role

Marla Free

A person familiar to practically all CHS students is Marla Free, who was born in Amarillo on July 4, 1942. Her family moved to Canyon when she was in the third grade, and they have lived here ever since.

Marla lists her favorite person as her brother, Gerald, and her interests as cooking, bowling, and simply observing people.

Watching football games is her most exciting hobby, and her pet peeve is people who try to convince others that they are bored with life.

Marla has been very active throughout her four years of high school. She has been drum major for two years, Flame Queen in her senior year, treasurer for the Student Council, and an FHA and FTA member.

Jimmy Killingsworth
One VIP for this week is Jimmy Killingsworth, an active member of the Junior Class.

Jimmy loves hamburgers and lists them as his favorite food, along with purple for a color and a Ford for a car.

He loves all kinds of music and proves this by being a member of the Choral Club. He is a member of the football, basketball, and track teams.

Jimmy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Killingsworth and reside, along with Jimmy, at 2405 Ninth Avenue.

'Beatnik' Juniors Hold Class Party

The theme for the Junior Class party December 22 was "Beatnik."

All juniors were dressed in beatnik style as they sat on the floor around tables, lighted by candles, and listened to the Sons of Fire play a few numbers. Some poems were recited by class members while the bongo drums were played.

Dancing then took place until the end of the party.

The party was held in the high school cafeteria which was decorated by members of the class. There were red streamers dividing the cafeteria in half. On one side was the dancing area and the band. The tables and the refreshments were on the other. At the entrance, students took off their shoes and left them in a specified place.

Mr. Gene Murray and Mrs. Dan Sanders are the junior sponsors that attended. Also attending were several parents.

Honor Students To Install Heads For Hereford

National Honor Society members Linda Green, Wilma Burkett, Judy Taylor, Chuck Nester, Mary Brillhart, Bill Cornette, and Miss Claudia Neelley, sponsor, will attend a NHS meeting in Hereford January 21 to install officers.

This is Hereford's first year to have a honor society. The installation was to have been on January 5, but snow prevented this.

County Officers 'Good Neighbors'

Rour Randall County men aided in a "good neighbor" exchange that allowed members of the Amarillo Police Department to attend the funeral of a slain policeman.

Bill Wilson, justice of the peace for precinct 1, served as station commander, while Randall County law enforcement officers joined with Potter County officers and members of the Department of Public Safety as police for the City of Amarillo during funeral services for Marvin E. Serving as "patrolmen" were Lem Pounds, Cliff Longest, and Gilbert Ray.

The services were held yesterday morning in Amarillo.

Bill Wilson Sent To State Hearing

W. A. "Bill" Wilson, justice of the peace for Precinct 1, was dispatched to Austin Wednesday by Randall County commissioners to assist Sen. Grady Hazlewood at the public hearing tomorrow on the new state insurance plan.

Wilson said he was sent so that he would be available should the senator need him at the hearing.

Hazlewood has attacked the plan and forced the hearing because of the plan's provision to penalize drivers who have received tickets for moving violations not connected with accidents.

Wilson also has voiced strong criticism of the plan. He says it places the person receiving the ticket for going five miles over the speed limit in the same category with those who lead officers on a 100-mile-per-hour chase.

The State Insurance Board will begin its hearings tomorrow morning.

Eaglettes Try Tulia on Friday

The first district basketball tilt is on tap Friday for the Canyon High School Eaglettes when the high-flying girls take on Tulia at the high school gym here.

Although eliminated from the Dimmitt tournament last weekend by Muleshoe, the Eaglettes sport a six won, two lost record. The only other loss was to Hedley in a tournament at Tulia.

In the tourney at Dimmitt, the Eaglettes measured Lockney, 44-34, for their third win over District 2-AA squad. The Eaglettes play in District 1-AA.

The girls lost to Muleshoe, 41-57, in the second round of play at Dimmitt in being eliminated.

As in past tilts, Marilyn Winn and Patricia Salmon shared high scoring honors. Winn hit 29 points in the Lockney game and 18 against Muleshoe, while Salmon sank 10 points against Lockney and 19 in the loss to Muleshoe.

The game here Friday, which begins at 7 p. m., will be the Eaglettes first encounter this season with Tulia.

use in the downtown area, while the other two were placed on Highway 87 in the vicinity of West Texas State College.

Some of the new boxes are earmarked for late pickup. "These boxes will make available as late a pickup as possible and the mail will be delivered the next day if sent within a 300-mile radius of Canyon," the postmaster said.

Plans call for the boxes designated as "late pickup boxes" to be marked with a large white star. Other pickup boxes will have a card telling the time of pickup and the address of the nearest late pickup box, Higdon stated.

Receipts On Increase
Postal receipts, he added, rose by a whopping $10,162.85 during 1959. However, some 18 percent of the increase was due to the hike in postal rates.

The adjusted increase is a $2,087.38 rise over 1958 receipts.

Postal receipts, however, have risen nearly $20,000 since 1956, when the total for the year was $53,360.90. Total receipts for 1959 were $72,578.38, the postmaster said.

Get House Numbered

In announcing the extended mail delivery, Higdon urged all residents in the area to make sure the correct house number is on the home.

"The way Canyon is growing now," he said, "it is almost impossible for the mail carriers to know where everyone lives. And when we get a new man, it is especially difficult."

Also there are many homes and businesses in the city which have received door-to-door delivery for years which do not have a number on the building or the number is incorrect. Higdon urged everyone to check the number to make sure it is correct.

"Anyone who has questions about the correct house number should call city hall," Higdon said. He added that the city has charge of certifying all house numbers.

RAMBLING AROUND

By DOYLE G. THOMAS
Office Manager, ASC

Cotton acres are scarce in Randall County. We don't have acreage to lose or waste.

Because of this, we strongly urge that farmers not planning to use their allotment, or any part of it, release the acreage back to the county committee. Such released acreage can then be reapportioned to other farmers who need and want the acreage.

Allotments can be released for one year only or they can be permanently released. Acreage not planted reduces the farm and county history for future allotment years in addition to the fact that the acreage is not utilized to the fullest advantages of the farmers and Randall County.

In checking our records for last year, we note that this county lost credit for 113 acres that was not planted. This is roughly five percent of the county allotment and many of our farmers could have used the acreage to good advantage.

The final date to release acreage is April 20. We hope that no acreage will be lost this year because of our failure to use it.

The final date to apply for price support on 1959 crop grain is February 1. Price support is available through loans or purchase agreements.

Assistance is available for carrying out needed conservation practices under the 1960 Agricultural Conservation Program. There are 17 different approved conservation practices available to farmers in 1960. This includes underground irrigation pipe, terraces, dams and tanks, subsoiling, deferred grazing, bindweed control, and others. Application for the work must be made at the ASC office before the work is started.

Farmers planning to plant grass

under the Conservation Reserve or the Agricultural Conservation Programs need to make their plans and arrange for the seed. Grass should be planted between January 15 and April 30. There are about 6,000 acres to be seeded to grass under the Conservation Reserve and this is going to cause quite a rush on drills and other equipment. Those farmers that make their arrangements early are probably the ones that will come out ahead.

Don't live beyond your income and expect to get away with it.

It's usually money that's talking when circumstances alter cases.

WARREN'S

There was no picnicking here last week for motorists on Highway 87. This scene was shot at the roadside park south of Canyon on the busy thoroughfare the day after 10 inches of snow blanketed this area. Although the highway was open, motorists weren't stopping for lunch at any of the state's roadside picnic areas in this vicinity.

REPORTER-AT-LARGE

RICHARDSON SHOULD MAKE FINE PLAYER FOR BUFFALOES

By OSCAR GRIFFIN

In case you missed it in last week's Amarillo papers, Jerry Richardson, who quarterbacked the Canyon Eagles in the District 1-AA grid wars last fall, received an honorable mention for the AA all-state football team.

The slender field general has received offers from several colleges throughout the state, but reportedly has spurned all offers except the one offered him by West Texas State College.

The talk is that he wanted to play under Joe Kerbel, the new Buffalo football boss. Several other high school performers have expressed the same desire, including Buzzy Poage of Tulia, it is said.

Anyway you look at it, the addition of Richardson to the freshman ranks at West Texas is a feather in the cap of the school.

Richardson is a cool, level-headed leader on the gridiron. With the additional experience and coaching he will receive under Kerbel—after absorbing some fine high school coaching—he should make an outstanding college player in a couple of years.

In case you've forgotten the honors he's already received, here's a recap. As a junior he was an all-district and all-regional, and he repeated on these honors this year as a senior—in addition to being named the outstanding back in the district and getting honorable mention on the all-state squad.

Last season Richardson carried the ball 110 times for a 5.7 yard average per carry, while gaining 625 net yards rushing. He threw 93 passes for 336 yards with 38 completions. That adds up to a 41 percent completion average.

The 6-2, 160 pounder also scored 68 points; averaged 28 tackles per game, and intercepted eight of the 13 passes swiped by the Eagles during the season.

It's no wonder Buff fans are smiling these days.

Notice that a Dallas woman and

Boys Ranch Gets Livestock Grain

Over 16,400 pounds of milo was given last week to Cal Farley's Boys Ranch for feeding the 278 head of stock at the ranch north of Amarillo.

A Boys Ranch truck was loaded Thursday at Consumer's Elevator and Farmer's Elevator here with the grain for the stock. The grain will be used for feeding the ranch's dairy cattle, riding horses, and in FFA projects.

It was the first time grain has been loaded from Canyon for Boys Ranch.

Donating the grain were Hosea Foster and Cecil Waters, both of Canyon, and J. M. McCasland of Amarillo.

McCasland said money which was originally intended to buy the grain can be released for other needs of the ranch, such as the new dormitory now being planned or other facilities.

her husband are suing the wife's beauty parlor for a total of $90,000.

It seems that the woman asked for and got a "bleach and toner" to her "long blonde tresses" at the beauty parlor with these results:

1. A series of scalp infections;
2. Loss of her hair at the roots;
3. All new hair has been brittle, and
4. Emotional upsets because the woman has been unable to cultivate anything more than a short crewcut.

The husband, who is asking for $15,000 damages while the wife wants $75,000 damages, claims loss of his wife's hair has caused him to suffer "greatly from mental anguish and loss of sleep."

There ought to be a moral here somewhere.

Fellow down the street says this winter's just like all the rest. When he went to get out his over-shoes and heavy topcoat, he found all the sports shirts he had tried to locate during the summer.

Wayside News

By INA KENNEDY

The snow has been the topic of discussion this past week. Fortunately the winds were light and the roads were not blocked. All of the kids really enjoyed sleigh riding and just being out in the winter wonderland.

Margaret Moore Directing Play

The third production of the Amarillo Little Theatre, "The Country Girl," is being directed by Margaret Echols Moore of Canyon, wife of the head of the drama department at West Texas State College.

The play will run January 13 through January 16 at the theatre, located in Wolfen Village in Amarillo.

"The Country Girl" is a drama of three people caught in a tangle of misunderstanding. A brash young director assumes that the wife of a "has been" actor is responsible for his failures. The director remembers the actor once showed superior talent and sees in him the opportunity to score a surprise success in a play he is directing.

Although he does have talent, the actor is a very insecure and weak person and has leaned on his wife all their married life.

Curtain time each night is 8:15. General admission tickets are priced at $1.75 for adults and $1 for students.
